

Please do not accept BellSouth's proposal overturning broadband regulation. As a heavy broadband user at home as well as in my small medical practice, alternative choices are vitally important to financial success as well as quality of life.